

Daily News

All the important stuff from the last 24 hours, in one place.

2021-02-07

COVID

Is Your Vaccine Card Selfie a Gift for Scammers? Maybe

You finally got your vaccine, and you're excited to share the proof. Here's why that may not be a good idea, and what you can do instead.

Your Thursday Briefing

The thorny business of vaccine distribution.

Health Care Workers Hit Hard by the Coronavirus Pandemic

Vaccines may be on the way, but many on the front-lines are burned out. Has the government done enough to help alleviate their stress?

Russian Campaign Promotes Homegrown Vaccine and Undercuts Rivals

Russian news outlets with connections to the Kremlin ran disingenuous Spanish- language stories targeting vaccines made in the United States and Europe, researchers said.

Israel outpaced the world in vaccinations. Now it's seeing the results.

Israelis get the Pfizer/BioNTech Covid-19 vaccine in a gymnasium in the central Israeli city of Hod Hasharon, on February 4, 2021. | Jack Guez/AFP/Getty Images There's still a long way to go, but also a reason for hope. Israel has outpaced the world in vaccinating its population against Covid-1 ...

Germany talking to BioNTech about funding for vaccine capacity - Reuters

Germany talking to BioNTech about funding for vaccine capacity Reuters

Oxford/Astrazeneca COVID-19 vaccine less effective against S.African variant - FT cites study - Reuters

Oxford/Astrazeneca COVID-19 vaccine less effective against S.African variant - FT cites study Reuters

Myanmar approves Sputnik V COVID-19 vaccine -Russia's RDIF - Reuters

Myanmar approves Sputnik V COVID-19 vaccine -Russia's RDIF Reuters

Storm postpones state vaccine clinics in New York City area - Associated Press

Storm postpones state vaccine clinics in New York City area Associated Press

Unwilling to wait, poorer countries seek their own vaccines - The Associated Press

Unwilling to wait, poorer countries seek their own vaccines The Associated Press